What we've been doing

11 July 2017

Hayley Green

Leader: Graham Coe

Ranger: Alan Wilson

Eleven volunteers attended to clear rhododendron. The group also cleared a fire site and stacked the brash.

Weather was dry until about 11:00, then showery.

Previous visits

We last visited Hayley Green on 14 March 2017, when we had our woodcraft day with David Willis. Some of us have still got our butter knives that we whittled.

4 July 2017

Tarmans Copse

Leader: Jon Munday

Ranger: Marie-Anne Phillips

The group removed tree guards from around the edge of the copse. Ten volunteers attended. Weather was overcast with sunny intervals.

Previous visits

We last visited Tarmans Copse on 25 April 2017. The task was removing tree guards, again.

Coming up next

18 July 2017

Jennett's Hill

Bridge construction, willow removal, broken tree removal.

Nominate an ancient tree of the year

The Woodland Trust is organising the Tree of the Year competition for 2017. Nominations are open to any living tree in the UK with a story to tell and any individual, group or organisation can enter a tree until midnight on Sunday 30 July.
