What we've been doing

20 June 2023

Peacock Meadows

The tasks were:

1. To replace a knee high rail with a post and rail construction
2. To remove ragwort

The weather was overcast to begin with, but brightened up by coffee time. 13 volunteers attended.

Long Hill Park

The tasks were:

1. Replace 24 steps on right hand side of park beyond the field, back fill with MOT type 1
2. Remove ragwort from the field (little was found)
3. Clear round trees on a steep bank to the north of the site

The weather was partly sunny, with some breeze, quite warm.

19 volunteers attended

Coming up next

4 July 2023

South Hill Park amphitheatre

Task: repair amphitheatre, remulch South Lawn oak and weed car park. AGM part 2.

11 July 2023

Cabbage Hill

Task: ragwort pulling

Thanks to the Ascot shed

Many thanks to the people at the Ascot Shed, who have kindly been working to sharpen our somewhat blunted tools (especially loppers). A round of applause from all at BCV!

Surveying mammals

The people's trust for endangered species is asking for volunteers to help with surveying mammals in gardens. If you have a resident hedgehog or badger or even deer, you might want to get involved:
